"I do not promise you happiness in this life, only in the next"

LET US HAVE A SINGULAR DEVOTION to our Angel Guardians; and indeed it is difficult not to have it, and we must be utterly blind and heartless not to entertain towards them all those sentiments of perfect gratitude which we are capable of feeling...Be [also] devout to the Guardian Angels of your friends; they render you in many instances greater services than you are aware; and sometimes they even give you assistance which you do not receive from your own Angel Guardian. There are occasions on which they interest themselves in your behalf for the sake of those of whom they have the care, knowing that your friendship is profitable to them for the good of their souls. As there is nothing of which these holy spirits have a greater horror than bad or dangerous friendships, so also one of the things which affords them most consolation is a holy union in the interests of God. The devils do all they can to make men contract evil friendships, and the good angels to break them...A holy person having contracted a truly Christian friendship with another, the devil, envious of the good which it was producing, seized one of them and threw him down some steps to the ground. The Guardian Angel of the friend came speedily to his help and preserved him from injury; but what is remarkable is this, that it was the friend's Angel-Guardian, and not the Guardian of him who was cast down by the devil.

In the number of your friends, spiritual directors ought to hold a very prominent place; beseech their good angels to inspire them with such counsels as are purely conformable to the Divine Will. You should also highly honour those of your father and mother, of your relations, and of other persons with whom you are connected, and who render you, or may render you, some service. The honour which you pay to their angels will not be without fruit, and you will obtain through their means what you would never gain in any other way. Remember, also the Angel Guardians of all those persons who are kind, or have been kind to you: these angels have more to say than you think to the benefits you have received from them. Honour the angels of your enemies, of those who are opposed to you in any way whatever; this is the true means to soften their hearts; or, if it be more for the glory of God that you should suffer at their hands, these glorious spirits will obtain you special graces to make a good use of your sufferings, and cordially to love those who hate you or cause you trouble.

Do not forget to pay your homage to those Princes of Heaven who guard the Sovereign Pontiff, the Bishops and other persons who preside over the Church, as well as governors and other administrators of temporal goods. The Archangels of kingdoms and of provinces must also be objects of your devotion, as also those of the towns and villages in which you dwell and through which you pass.

It is a holy practice to implore the aid of the angels of the diocese in which we reside, and of the guardian angels of its bishop and of those under him, that they may succeed in establishing the reign of Jesus Christ in the hearts of the faithful who dwell there, that they may destroy the empire of Satan, and receive the lights and strength necessary to maintain holy discipline in the diocese; and that they may defeat the malice and wiles of the devils, who are ever labouring to counteract the means which God is pleased to employ for the promotion of His divine interests.

Finally, we must be devout to the Angels to obtain through them purity of mind and body, charity towards our neighbor, and also patience; to the Archangels, to obtain through them a zeal for the interests of God, both for ourselves and others, especially those who govern Church and state; to the Principalities, for the reformation of our own interior. Man is a little world in himself, and he is bound to govern his passions, and rule as a sovereign over them. But since his power is marvelously weakened by sin, he needs support, that he may not let himself be overcome by himself. The Principalities, who bear this glorious title on account of the rule which God has given them over the inferior angels, will render him powerful assistance if he strives to make himself not unworthy of it; but to this end he must honour with profound reverence these great Princes of Paradise.

NOVENA FOR THE HOLY ROSARY: SEPT 28 - OCT 6

QUEEN OF THE MOST HOLY ROSARY, in these times of such brazen impiety, manifest thy power with the signs of thine ancient victories, and from thy throne, whence thou dost dispense pardon and graces, mercifully regard the Church of thy Son, His Vicar on earth, and every order of clergy and laity, who are sore oppressed in the mighty conflict. Do thou, who art the powerful vanquisher of all heresies, hasten the hour of mercy, even though the hour of God's justice is every day provoked by the countless sins of men. For us who are the least of men, kneeling before thee in supplication, do thou obtain the special favor we ask (...mention intentions here...), the grace we need to live righteously upon earth and to reign among the just in Heaven, the while in company with all faithful Christians throughout the world, we salute thee and acclaim thee as Queen of the Most Holy Rosary.

QUEEN OF THE MOST HOLY ROSARY, pray for us.

ANNUAL ROSARY CRUSADE: Saturday, October 10th, 4pm in Our Lady of Lourdes parking lot. Let us come together in prayer, song, & community to honor Our Lady, followed by a potluck (signup link to be shared next week). For more info, please contact: legionofmary@ololparish.org

† Our Parish Play on St. Tarcisus will be performed today, Sunday, September 27th, at 2pm in the OLOL undercroft.

† All priests of the Diocese will be gathered at a convocation October 5-9th. Due to this, there will be no Adoration on Monday, October 5th. Please check next Sunday's bulletin for the final Mass schedule changes/cancellations for that week. They will also be posted on parish website.

"There are people who take everything in the way that gives them the most pain; with me it is the reverse; I see always the good side of things. If I have naught but pure suffering without any break, well ! I make of it my joy."

"When we speak of peace we do not mean joy – not at least sensible joy; to suffer in peace it is enough that we truly will all that God wills."
