"I do not promise you happiness in this life, only in the next"

Dear Faithful Parishioners, Praised be Jesus Christ!

HIS PAST WEEK, I received an extra assignment from the Bishop. He appointed me chaplain to St. Henry District High School. I am still chaplain to the Sisters of St. Joseph the Worker as well. As a result, I have to change the weekday Mass times here at Our Lady of Lourdes.

Starting the week of Monday, August 10th, the weekday Mass times at our Lady of Lourdes will be as follows:

- Monday – 12:10 pm
- Tuesday – 6:30 am
- Wednesday – 12:10 pm
- Thursday – 6:30 am
- Friday – 6:30 am & 12:10 pm

The Saturday and Sunday Mass schedule remains the same. I know this schedule is not what you are used to. I ask for your patience and understanding. As always, I will be available for confessions before Masses, and if someone is standing in line, after Masses. As always, my door is always open. If you ever have any comments, questions, concerns, or need anything at all, don't hesitate to contact me. I will continue to serve you to the best of my ability. May God bless each and every one of you! Please pray for vocations. Fr. Matt

DPAA NEWS

The Bishop has graciously forgiven the debt we owe the 2025 DPAA campaign. Our goal was $38,400. We collected $5,395. As you remember, he also forgave the shortfall we had in 2024: $42,280.

We will be required to pay any shortfalls in the future from now on. Our goal for this year's DPAA is $35,900. We have only raised $4,077.50.

Please consider giving to the DPAA. Anything over our goal we get to keep, tax free. Thank you for your consideration.

"Beware of condemning any man's action. Consider your neighbor's intention, which is often honest and innocent, even though his act seems bad in outward appearance."

— ST. IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA

MAJESTIC QUEEN OF HEAVEN AND MISTRESS OF THE ANGELS, thou didst receive from God the power and commission to crush the head of Satan; wherefore we humbly beseech thee, send forth the legions of Heaven, that, under thy command, they may seek out all evil spirits, engage them everywhere in battle, curb their insolence, and hurl them back into the pit of Hell. "Who is like unto God?" O good and tender Mother, thou shalt ever be our hope and the object of our love. O Mother of God, send forth the holy Angels to defend us and drive far from us the cruel foe. Holy Angels and Archangels, defend us and keep us. Amen.

To dress becomingly for God and neighbor, and in keeping with the reverence due to the Blessed Sacrament, kindly refrain from wearing shorts, tee-shirts, tank-tops, revealing blouses, sleeveless or backless dresses, or form-fitting clothing of any sort. Please wear dresses and skirts that fall below the knee when sitting even with leggings (around mid-calf). With due regard to time and circumstance, all are encouraged to wear decorous attire befitting sacred and divine worship.

THE FEAST OF ST. ANNE

THE HOME OF ANNE is set before us, wherein to see an example both of married and of maiden life, the one in the person of the mother, the other in that of the daughter, whereof the one hath but now ceased to be barren, and the other is in a little while destined, beyond the course of nature, to become the Mother of the Messiah by a singular birth, specially designed by God to build up anew our nature. It is with reason then that Anne, filled with the Holy Ghost, with joyful and jubilant spirit singeth aloud: Rejoice with me, for out of my barren womb I have borne the bud of promise, and, as I have longed, I nourish at my breasts the fruit of benediction.

I have laid aside the mournful garments of barrenness, and put on the joyful raiment of fruitfulness. Let Sarah be glad that was joyfully pregnant in her old age, and was a shadow cast before of my conception that hitherto have been barren. Let all the barren and fruitless break forth into singing, when they behold in what wondrous wise I have been visited from heaven.

Let all mothers likewise, that like Anne are gifted with fruitfulness, say: Blessed be He That gave their desire unto them that besought Him, That gave fruitfulness unto her that was barren, and That granted unto her that from her should bud forth the joy-bringing Virgin, who, according to the flesh, was Mother of God, and whose womb was a heaven wherein He dwelt Whom no place can contain. Let us also with them offer our praises to her that was called barren, but now is become the mother of a maidchild.

Blessed art thou, and thrice blessed, whom God hath so blessed as to make thee to bring forth, as His own gift, the babe Mary, whose very name is highly honourable, out of whom Christ, the Flower of life, blossomed... a maiden whose rising is glorious, and whose delivery is worth more than the world. We also, O woman most blessed, do wish thee joy. In sooth thou hast brought forth what we have all hoped for, and God hath given us, namely, the babe of promise. Blessed indeed art thou, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. The tongues of all the godly do magnify thine offspring, and every glad word is spoken concerning Her of whom thou art delivered. Meet in truth is it, and most meet to praise her who received a revelation from the goodness of God, and bore for us such and so great a fruit, from whom sweet Jesus sprang.
